Rose Financial Services Names Three New Partners

ROCKVILLE, MD, July 6, 2007 – Ted Rose, President of Rose Financial Services (RFS) announced today that two Vice Presidents, Tim Fargo and Jeanne McMillen, and the Director of Business Development, Lauri Rodich, have become partners in the rapidly growing accounting outsourcing firm. As partners in the firm, they will be responsible for implementing new strategic initiatives as well as ensuring ongoing client activities retain their current high quality levels.

“I am excited to have Tim, Jeanne, and Lauri expand their roles at RFS. They are all true professionals and dedicated to client service. By adding these partners to the firm, RFS ensures that it will continue to offer the highest quality accounting outsourcing services in the market.” said Ted Rose. “It also shows our high achieving staff members that they have a clear career path at RFS.”

Speaking for the three new partners, Tim Fargo added, “It is an honor to be a partner in this dynamic and innovative firm. Accounting outsourcing has become a recognized option for growing firms. The addition of partners positions RFS to continue as the market leader in accounting outsourcing.”
