RFS President Appointed to the Executive Committee of Workforce Investment Board

ROCKVILLE, MARYLAND, SEPTEMBER 1, 2006 – Edward Rose was appointed to the Executive Committee as Finance Chairman of Montgomery County Workforce Investment Board. Charged with providing policy guidance on how Montgomery County can maintain a highly educated and well-trained workforce, the board also provides financial oversight of the County’s administration of several million dollars in federal and local workforce investment and job training funds.

"Montgomery County is fortunate to have so many outstanding citizens who volunteer to serve on our boards, committees, and commissions. The County will benefit immeasurably from your efforts," said Thomas e. Perez, Council President in a letter addressed to Mr. Rose.

"As a lifetime resident of this county, being able to use my considerable financial experience to improve the quality of life in my own community is a much appreciated opportunity," said Ted Rose. "In the 12 years I have served as President of Rose Financial Services, I have provided financial guidance to over 100 companies in a variety of industries and have continually strived to impact the jobs of thousands of Metro area employees in a positive way. I offer a unique perspective to this group because of my experience as a business owner, along with my depth of knowledge of the business community’s workforce needs.
